Mamie Worth Captures the Three-Year-Old Handleap—Stamping Ground First at S to 1—Steeplechase for Borough -Four Favorites Lose at Gravesend.

Superb racing weather drew 15,000 people to Gravesend yesterday where four favorites were vanquished. The track was fast, but the fields were not unusually large. Little Miss Theims Walden Littlefield's game filly, Funnyside, at 8 to 1, won the Albermarle takes for two-year-olds fillies at five and a half furlongs, getting a splendid ride from Tommy Burns, who also handled Mamie Worth in the last event successfully. The Mexican Stable's Flammula was the choice in the Albermarle at 17 to 10, with W. B. Jenaing's Letola heavily played at 2 to 1. They got away from the post at a tremendous clip, running close together to the middle of the stretch. But the pace was a heartbreaker. and when Burns came on from third place with Funnyside, the two leaders could not stall her off. Burns put up one of his best finishes and took the race by a length and a half in 1:07 1-5, Flammula beating Letola by a short head. Mamie Worth was the favorite in the sixth event, a handicap for three-year-olds at about six furlongs, but big money was place on J. B. Haggins's Parisienne. John A. Drake's High Chancellor and W. C. Whitney's Girdle. Burns made all the running with Mamie Worth, the latter winning in a drive from High Chancellor by a length in 1:00 4-5. Parisienne and Girdle stopped in the stretch and Invincible, a 40 to 1 shot, took third money.

Stamping Ground, one of the most consistent performers in training, won the handicap for mares of all ages at a mile and a sixteenth with the liberal odds of 8 to 1 about her. Eugenia Burch was the choice at 13 to 5, Ada Nay, Lux Casta and Molile Brant fancied in the order named. Stamping Ground made every post a winner and stood a drive from little Higgins to win by a length from Eugenia Burch, who was a head before Molile Brant. The time was 1:46 3-5, only three-fifths of a second behind the track record.

An excellent field took part in the Steeple-chase Handicap at about two miles and a half. Tankard and Step Lightly, equal favorites, went amiss, the former going lame and the latter throwing Ray at the paddock jump. Then Mamilian, 30 to 1, had the race apparently at his mercy when he reached the last obstacle, but he fell, and J. E. Widener's Borough, 4 to 1, went on to an easy victory by three lengths in 5:07 1-3. Baron Pepper, 20 to 1, took the place from The Ragged Cavalier, 12 to 1, by eight lengths.

The hardest blow received by the talent during the day occurred in the first event when J. E. Madden's The Minute Man, the conquerer of McChesney, went down to Ignominous defeat. Madden's cott looked to be invincible against those who accepted the issue, and was a hot favorite at 13 to 20. But, although O'Neill got him off well, The Minute Man showed nothing of his former dazzling speed and was unable to finish in the money, being beaten a head in the last jump by Sais, 50 to 1. Fuller put up a magnificent ride on E. R. Thomas's St. Valentine, 6 to 1, who was returned the winner by a length and a half in 1:10 4-5, W. C. Whitney's Mincola running second, a head before Sais.

Newton Bennington's Embarrassment had no difficulty in taking the fifth race at a mile and a furlong. He was a favorite and Higgins scored his second win of the day by bringing him home five lengths to the good. Mabel Richardson, 4 to 1, was second, a length and a half before the 20 to 1 shot, Stonewall.

TURF GOSSIP AT GRAVESEND. Possible Waterboy-McChesney Match Be vives Interes

Turfmen were discussing yesterday the possibility of a match between Waterboy and McChesney, to be run at Brighton Beach next month. The fact that William Engeman stands ready to renew his offer of a $10,000 purse for a race between the cham-pions of the East and the West has served to bring the matter to such a focus that it will not be at all surprising if details are arranged in a few days. The idea is to have Waterboy and McChesney meet at a mile and a quarter, carrying 126 pounds, track and weather to be fair. 126 pounds, track and weather to be fair.

E. E. Smathers said yesterday that McChesney would be a sure starter. Mr. Smathers believes "Big Mac" will surely win, and if the match is made he stands ready to bet a world Results:

Those who have a pretty good line on the situation were willing to bet yesterday that Waterboy will accept the issue, in which event no time will be lost in clinching the match. Both horses are in the finest of condition at present, and if they should go to the post present, and if they should go to the post to-morrow the impression prevails that McChesney would be a slight favorite. Joyner, it is said, has all along had a preference for Brighton, where the track is hard and fast, and where Waterboy ran the greatest race of his career when he won the Brighton Hanof his career when he won the Brighton Han-

Docter for $3,900, and has won several valuable stakes and overnight events, in spite of the fact that she has been generally underestimated by the public and layers. "Mr. Cotton" purchased the jumpers Valdez and Fulminate yesterday from J. E. Though not named to start in the Occidental Handicap to-day, McChesney, Hermis and The Picket are all eligible, to carry 134, 180 and 115 pounds, respectively.

E. R. Thomas's St. Valentine, who won the first race yesterday, was bred by John E. Madden, whose The Minute Man, incidentally, was badly besten. In this race John Sanford's Adriutha was played from 100 to 1 down to 40, while Batts was lowered from 100 to 60. Batts tried to throw Coburn over the rail at the post.

C. Fellowes, Jr., has turned his horses over to F. Midgely to train.

Nearly all of the men were old players, for the new material is not expected to come out until next Wednesday, when the entrance examinations will be over. New Haven, Sept. 21.—Soper, the little half back on the Yale 'varsity squad, made the first touchdown on the Yale field this season in the sharp scrimmage practice this afternoon. The touchdown was made at the end of fifteen minutes' practice. It was the first line-up of the Yale squad since the practice began a week ago. The college side could not hold the 'varsity eleven at all. There was a noticeable lack of fumbling for so early in the season. One of the features of the play was the uncontrollable anxiety of the 'varsity backs to get into motion. Capt. Rafferty was kicked in the head, and retired from practice the remainder of the afternoon. It was announced to-night that Hooper, the star centre of Exeter last year, will not take the Yale examinations this year, but will go to Dartmouth. He so decided this afternoon. Capt. Jack Gates of the Andover eleven of last year, who has decided to enter the Yale Law School, was on the field this afternoon and will be a member of the freshman eleven this year. Baseball Notes.

The race for the pennant in the Eastern League has continued close and exciting until this, the last week of the season, which closes on Saturday. Jersey City will close its season at home on Thursday and Saturday of this week with Newark.

GOLF.

Mrs. Stout Not to Play in the Women's Championship.

To-night the entries will close for the vomen's championship of 1903, to be held at the Chicago Golf Club, at Wheaton, from Sept. 29 to Oct. 8. The later mails may make a difference, but otherwise it is sure that the total of entries will not be so great as last year's. However, when the first men's chamnionship was held in the West, in 1897, there were but twenty-eight entries, and even though there should be only a small entry for the women's tournament as compared with last year's, it would still be of national and educational importance.

It has been a matter of course that the holder of the title should defend it, but this time precedent has to be overruled. Indeed to defend the title is one of the understood obligations of those who have been lucky enough to win it. In the last two women championships the winner was Miss Genevieve Hecker. Since winning the title the vieve Hecker. Since winning the title the last time, Miss Hecker has become a bride, which puts a new aspect on the situation, and as Mrs. Charles T. Stout she declares she will not go to Chicago this year. Mrs. Stout's refusal is a decided one.

Another very prominent player who says she will not go to the championship is Mrs. E. A. Manice. Miss Ruth Underhill, Mrs. W F. Morgan and Miss Vanderhoef, among many more, have not entered. It is evident that Miss Bessie Anthony will have only the Boston and Philadelphia players to defeat.

The Essex County Country Club team journeyed to the Baltusrol Golf Club last Saturday. The visitors had high hopes of winning, but with the turn down of Conklin and Reynolds they had to take to the woods. Baltusrol—C. J. Suilivan, 1; J. H. P. Wharton, 0; R. W. Candler, 0; J. After the tournament last week in Vermon After the tournament last week in Vermont the five remaining members of the Oxford and Cambridge Society's team departed in various directions. Messrs. Alison and Ellis sailed last Saturday for England; the two Hunters are in town visiting friends, and John L. Low has gone to Toronto.

WILL NOT FIGHT IN NOVEMBER. Ben Jordan Cannot Sail Before That Month -Young Corbett an Actor.

Ben Jordan and Young Cor bett will not meet in San Francisco next November as scheduled. According to a letter received for the Kings County man. Anderson forced from the Englishman he will not be able to sail for this country until November, consail for this country until November, consequently he could not fight Young Corbett until next January, as he would want at least six weeks in which to train. Corbett in the mean time will not remain idle. He has been practically matched to fight Martin Canole before one of the Boston clubs next month. Canole is a good fighter. The champion also is to meet Tim Callahan for six rounds before one of the Philadelphia clubs the first week in October.

Young Corbett made his debut as a real actor in a play called "New York Life" at the Star Theaire yesterday afternoon. He had over fourteen lines and spoke them in true thespian fashion. He also boxed and was loudly applauded.

MARYELOUS RESULTS.

A Simple Act of Justice to Suffering Humanity. Remarkable Experience of a Member of the New Haven Pelice Force.

A policeman's word is as good as his bond—at least in New Haven, Connecticut. At No. 54 South Street, in that city, lives Police Officer W. H. Kennedy, who tells the story of a remarkable experience. His troubles were of a nervous origin, and terrible headaches resulted. His nervous system was all out of order. It is not strange, therefore, that Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great nerve tonic, cured him entirely. Officer Kennedy says:

Kennedy says:

"For years I suffered with nervous headaches till it seemed as if my head would burst. Usually it would disappear about evening only to come on again in the morning with blinding force and then it would feel as it something was jumping inside of my head.

"Three different physicians failed to help me. Then I tried three of the most widely advertised remedies on the market with no visible result. Finally I decided to give Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy a chance.

"The first two doses of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy a chance.

"The first two doses of Dr. Greene's Nervura brought me rest and refreshing sleep—something that I had been a stranger to for many weeks. I continued to improve under its influence until at the end of two months I was completely restored to health.

"These results were truly marvelous. If I had not taken Dr. Greene's Nervura I would now be aphysical wreck. I feel that I must do justice to suffering humanity and to Dr. Greene and let my cure be known."

MORE BIG MONEY FOR RYAN.

PLUNGER WINS $76,000 ON TWO GRAVESEND RACES.

Has $5,000 on Stamping Ground at S to 1 and Then Places $30,000 on Embarrassment at 6 to 5-John A. Drake Loses $35,000 on High Chancellor.

John J. Rvan, the get-rich-quick man, who won $90,000 at Gravesend last Saturday was again in evidence at the track yesterday, cleaning up another small fortune. Ryan is causing a tremendous sensation among the layers these days, so much so that most of them dread to see him coming down the line. Many curious persons hunted him up yesterday just to "get a look." Ryan was found behind the book run by George F. Considine, in one corner of the ring nearest the field. He wore a light check suit, a black derby hat, a white shirt and a black silk tie in which nestled his famous iamond headlight. He smoked fat cigars, one after another, and was constantly in conversation with men known to possess racetrack wisdom. Ryan is not permitted to make book himself, but regarding Considine's operations his word is law. When a big bettor approaches Considine with a $5,000 or $10,000 wager, the latter turns to Ryan. If the get-rich-quick man thinks he has a chance to win the bet he nods and the wager is duly recorded. He has the face of a typica gambler, cool, expressionless and ironjawed. Nothing seems to perturb him. even a heavy loss.

It was not until the third race that Ryan began to make the other layers squirm. He believed Stamping Ground had the others beaten, and he proceeded to bet $5,000 on her at 8 to 1. When the filly landed the race Ryan, $40,000 in hand, took matters easy until the fifth event, when he got ready to unbelt on Newton Bennington's Embarrassment. He ordered Considine to hold this colt out in the book and then went around the ring betting $1,000 at a clip. It was estimated that he got $30,000 down at an average of 6 to 5, clearing $16,000 to the race. It was common talk that since Friday Ryan had won close to $150,000 from the ground, while his book has shown a profit of large dimensions.

While Ryan occupied the centre of the stage all the afternoon, John A. Drake excited much comment by a big plunge on his colt High Chancellor in the last on his colt High Chancellor in the last race. Mr. Drake is behind the game this season, but has been making a determined attempt to pull out. High Chancellor opened at 5 to 1, and Mr. Drake, together with his colored betting commissioner, "Senator" Bell, immediately got to work putting the money down. It is said that nearly $35,000 was placed before the price dropped to threes, Mr. Drake standing to win over $100,000; but Mamie Worth upset the plan to recoup by beating the upset the plan to recoup by beating the Drake colt a length.

E. R. Thomas was another heavy bettor.

He won $30,000, it is said, on St. Valentine in the first race, but was a loser on Highlander in the fifth. How much he bet on wagers of $1,000 each at 5 to 1 were noted by those who followed him in the ring. The bookmakers had a feither The bookmakers had a fairly profitable day, as they won heavily over The Minute Man, Tankard, Step Lightly, Eugenia Burch Flammula and Letola.

C. in straight sets. The veteran Stevens played his usual accurate back court game, which proved too swift matters at the start, taking the first three games on better all around work. His onponent soon steadied, and by careful placing tied the score at 3 all. Stevens made a nun tied the score at 3 an. Stevens made a number of sharp drives along the side lines, putting Anderson on the defensive. Before the Kings County man could recover, Stevens had the set. Careful placing won the next two sets for Stevens, with Anderson fighting for every rolpt. every point.

This victory gives Stevens his second win of the championship trophy, which must be

Play in the open tournament of the Amackassin Club was begun yesterday at Yonkers. The event of the day was the men's singles, which included a number of prominent players from nearby clubs. The Kings County champion, Frederick G. Anderson, had little trouble in winning his matches for the day. He defeated Francis B. Allen and H. L. Parr, both of the home club, in straight sets. GRAND CIRCUIT AT COLUMBUS. Four Races Decided in Average Time of COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 21 .- The Grand Cirruit races were begun here to-day before a large crowd and with splendid weather and conditions. Four races were reeled off in an average time of less than 2.10 for the mile, Scott Hudson's stable getting the big end of the winnings. In the 2:12 trotting Belle Kuser won in straight heats, and her victory was anything but a hollow one Patchen Maid, Topsy and Robizola had to be eckoned with each time. In the second trip around Patchen Maid came up strong, and Topsy, who led all the way to the last stretch, tired just enough to let Belle Kuser come up and lead by a neck. Patchen Maid moved up and the three horses came down in blanket asnion, all going their limit under the whip. Hudson had about a neck the best of it, and

The next heat was easier for him. Tom Keene, after winning the first heat in the 2:24 pace, and being a strong favorite in the second heat, made a bad break on the back stretch and was distanced, dumping his backers nard. King Direct was hard pushed by Hazel Banks in the remaining heats. Jay McGregor won the 2:14 trot from Questor easily. The 2:21 pace had seventeen starters, the largest Grand Circuit field to date. The annual general meeting of the Metropolitan Association of the A. A. U. was held last night at the St. Bartholomew A.
